VINOFORUM 2020

TASTING

September 11-20

Parco di Tor di Quinto Via Fornaci di Tor di Quinto, 10

Sun - Thurs 7pm - 12am, Fri - Sat 7pm - 1am

Entry fee: €16 (inclusive of 10 wine tastings)

lospaziodelgusto.it

Vinòforum is the first major event dedicated to the food and wine sector to kick off after the forced cancellations caused by the pandemic. It will be hosted in the splendid 12,000sqm Parco di Tor di Quinto near Ponte Milvio, ensuring all safety measures. As usual, Vinòforum will host top culinary professionals, wine experts and restaurateurs. The festival will showcase 2500 participating wine labels, presentations by sommeliers, great chefs and more. Another exciting feature is the Temporary Restaurant: some of the best restaurants in Rome will be presenting 3 samples of their recipes paired with Champagnes. But these are just a few of the things happening at Vinòforum, check out their website for more info.

The Musica per Roma Foundation revives the music scene with "Auditorium Reloaded", one of the first music programs in Italy to resume in full compliance with the current anti-covid measures. Since July, the Cavea, designed by Renzo Piano, has been hosting 1000 spectators per performance. The program continues and will end on September 23rd. Among the concerts in program, get ready for: Marco Masini (1/09), Lino Guanciale (2/09), Colapesce Dimartino (5/09), Marina Rei (7/09), Il Muro del Canto (8/09), PFM Canta De André - Anniversary (9/09), Ghemon (12/09), and Vasco Brondi (23/09).

INTERNATIONAL TENNIS TOURNAMENT

SPORT

September 14 - 21

Foro Italico

internazionaliibnl.it

The BNL International Tennis Tournament is the most prestigious red clay tennis tournament in the world after the French Open. After cancelling the event in May due to covid-19, the tournament is finally back this September on an exceptional basis! The Top names in Tennis will be coming to duke it out on the clay courts of Foro Italico, an historical stadium built for the Olympic Games of 1960. This fabulous competition will combine men and women's tournaments, giving us a week of intense tennis where you'll be able to admire Nadal, Djokovic, Thiem, Medvedev, Tsitsipas, and many more top players, including Karolina Pliskov, Serena Williams and Elina Svitolina. To this day it is still unknown whether the tournament will be held behind closed doors or not. Stay tuned on their website.

SHORT THEATRE 2020

THEATRE

September 4 - 13

La Pelanda, WeGil, Teatro India, Teatro Argentina
shorttheatre.org

Rome's annual Short Theatre festival returns for its fifteenth edition with a series of evocative performances including concerts, DJ sets, dance and theatre performances, workshops, and installations, in compliance with all safety measures. In this historical period, the edition will be shaped even more by dialogue and relationships, characterized by proximity intended not as a physical and spatial condition but as an intention - political, existential, emotional - to be put back at the center of the festival's thought and action through 5 sections: Panorama Roma, Tempo Libero, Controra, Displacement of Festival / More Than This, and Progetti di Residenza. Check out their website for more details on Short Theatre's roster of artists and performers and what is unfolding when.

SILVANO TOTI GLOBE THEATER 2020

THEATRE

Till September 27

Largo Aqua Felix (Piazza di Siena), Villa Borghese
Starts at 9.15pm

Entry fee: €8 - 30

globeatheatreroma.com

After lots of hard work to implement the new anti-covid safety procedures, the Silvano Toti Globe Theater came back for its 17th edition in July. You can experience Shakespeare's famous plays in the beautiful re-creation of the famous Globe theatre in Villa Borghese in Italian. Their season continues through September with the "Shakespea Re di Napoli", a game between reality and appearance where the Shakespearian language mixes with that of the Neapolitan baroque (2 - 6), while on September 7th the Murmat International Short Film Festival awaits you. The edition ends with the "Twelfth Night" (11 - 13, 17 - 20, 23 - 27). Don't miss out on "Al Globe con Mamma e Papà", a series for children that will be held on Sunday mornings at 11am.

MOONLIT MOVIE NIGHTS

What better way to say goodbye to this last month of summer than with a movie under the stars? Rome continues to offer open-air cinemas in beautiful parks, drive-ins and even in EUR's famous lake, showing everything from classic flicks, to kid-friendly favorites, to new releases, all in full compliance with the anti-coronavirus measures.

Under the towering pines of Villa Borghese, Casa del Cinema will continue hosting its outdoor film festival Caleidoscopio, divided into themes. Till September 14th you'll be able to enjoy the free open-air evenings dedicated to the stars of Italian and international cinema with the usual formula of a themed screening each day of the week. Mondays are dedicated to Alberto Sordi! Reservations can be made up to two hours before the event.

New this year is the drive in format that will accompany us every weekend till October! Get ready to watch amazing national and international movies in Italian at Sunset Drive In, the drive in at Cinecittà Studios that can host up to 160 cars for a total of 320 viewers, starting from September 3rd! As you enjoy the movie you can also order food and beverages to munch on, which will be served on customized Sunset Drive In trays that match the merch available.

While till September 24th get ready for a completely new format in one of the most cinematic neighborhoods of Rome: Floating Theatre – an actual open-air cinema that floats on EUR's famous laghetto! Not just movie screenings that range from "Parasite" to "Joker", from "The Goonies" to "Once Upon a Time in Hollywood" but also the presence of famous actors and directors from Matt Dillon and Jasmine Trinca, to Ferenc Ozpetek and Maria Sole Tognazzi. The floating theatre hosts 150 seats and spectators will have wireless headphones.

But that's not all; there are other Rome Arenas where you can catch a movie under the stars. From Arena Garbatella and Arena Tiziano till September 20th, to Drive in Cinema Paolo Ferrari – Cineland Ostia till September 15th. Don't miss out on this great last month of open-air movie nights!
