There's no better way to spend a balmy summer night in Rome than enjoying an opera, ballet or concert at the Baths of Caracalla. A cultural hub and vibrant social spot back in Ancient Rome, the Baths were the equivalent of a community day spa, where Romans would go to bathe and socialize. It was a place to entertain and to be entertained. Fast-forward thousands of years later, and the ruins have become an open-air, improvised stage that welcomes thousands of locals and tourists every summer. Opera, dance, cinema, theatre, great symphonic music, jazz and pop. The Rome Opera House's summer programme becomes a festival: the Caracalla Festival 2024, with 60 evenings scheduled from June 3rd to August 10th to be held at the usual location, Teatro Grande, by the old thermal baths of Caracalla, as well as at the Teatro del Portico, near the Temple of Jupiter.
